Family speak of struggle to come to terms with son's death after his wife is cleared of murder

EXCLUSIVE

THE grieving family of man whose death from a single stab wound led to his wife standing trial for murder fear they will never be able to come to terms with his loss.

Ron Lowe (43) died on August 30 last year at the home in Long Ley, Harlow, where he lived with his wife, Susan (55).

On Friday she walked free from Chelmsford Crown Court after a jury found her not guilty of his murder following a two-week trial.

This week Mr Lowe's family spoke exclusively to the Star about their struggle to reach closure over the death of a "one-in-a-million son and brother". They are also worried they may not be welcome at his funeral.

Mum Gwendaline Lowe (72), now living in Milton Keynes with Mr Lowe's father, who is also named Ron, said: "Words can't describe what our family have been through over the past 11 months.

"Nobody should have to lose a son but to lose Ron in the way that we did makes coming to terms with his death all the more difficult.

"My husband has had five seizures since Ron's death and had to go in for an operation on his heart. The shock has been devastating."

Paying tribute to her "gentle giant" of a son, Mrs Lowe described the former engineer as a kind, loving and peaceful man.

"Even when Ron was at school he was always a good boy," she said. "He never got involved in any fights and he grew up to be a loving, caring son.

"He really was one in a million as a son and as a brother to his two sisters. He would go out of his way to help others and

378 caught in crackdown on licence cheats

ALMOST 400 people have been caught watching TV without a licence in Harlow during the first six months of 2010.

The figure of 378 compares to 975 across the rest of Essex and almost 209,000 people nationwide during the same period.

Anyone watching TV illegally risks prosecution and a fine of up to £1,000.

TV Licensing spokesperson Ian Fannon said: "The vast majority of people in Harlow pay their licence fee and to be fair to those who pay we have to be firm with those who attempt to get away without paying.

"We take licence evasion very seriously and, while we give people every opportunity to pay, we will not hesitate to prosecute if people continue to break the law."

A colour licence currently costs £145.50 and is required by anyone watching or recording TV programmes as they are shown on TV, whether they are using a TV set, computer, or any other equipment.

Pub to host a charity night

A NIGHT of music and comedy will be held at The Purple Emperor pub in Momples Road, Harlow, on Saturday to raise money for the Lymphoma Association.

A singer and a comedian will be followed by a disco. Tickets cost £5 and include a free drink and buffet.

The event is being organised by the Harlow Honeyes, a group of eight women including the pub's own Sally Parsons-Haines who will also be running the 2010 Adidas Women's 5K Challenge for the same charity next month.

The group aim to raise a total of £2,000. Tickets for the evening can be purchased from the pub.

Fundraisers hit target for Rae's new wheelchair

By CHRIS MOSS

chris.moss@hertsexnews.co.uk

A BRAVE Harlow tot suffering from a life-limiting disease will soon be whizzing around in a new state-of-the-art wheelchair after a charity ball helped fundraisers reach their £20,000 target.

Old Harlow residents Anne Godfrey, Michele Millar and Caroline Oakley arranged the glamorous Rae Of Sunshine bash at The Green Man Hotel to raise money for two-year-old Rae White, who suffers from Spinal Muscular Atrophy Type 2.

The degenerative condition has left Rae, of Broadfields, paralysed from the waist down.

But following last weekend's ball which raised a staggering £8,800, mum Tanya now has enough money to buy her daughter the special electric wheelchair which will dramatically improve her quality of life.

Tanya told the Star she was "gobsmacked" by the amount raised from the black tie event, which saw around 150 people paying £30 each for a ticket.

There was also an auction of items including a signed book and photograph donated by David and Victoria Beckham.

"I'm thrilled that we now have enough money to put in the order in for Rae's new wheelchair," said Tanya. "This is going to massively improve her quality of life and give her more independence as she reaches primary school age.

"I'm constantly amazed at the sheer generosity of people living in this town; it's just overwhelming."

Co-organiser Mrs Oakley was also amazed at the amount of money raised by the event and praised the community for coming together for a very special cause.

"To be honest, we were stunned by the amount of cash we were able to raise for Rae," she said.

"We'd read about Rae's plight in the Star and decided we would stage the event to raise money towards the purchase of her new wheelchair.

"She's such a brave girl and we wanted to try and make her life that little bit easier."

Mrs Oakley added: "We want to thank everyone who turned up to the event and all the local businesses who donated items for our auction and raffle. It was a fantastic night in honour of a very special little girl."

● A Rae Of Sunshine charity fun day will be taking place at The Horns & Horseshoes Pub, in Foster Street, Harlow, on Saturday.

It will include live music, children's activities, a hog roast and pizza stall.

The event starts at noon and all proceeds will be donated to the charity.

Olympics guide boost for new Leisurezone

INTERNATIONAL athletes preparing for the 2012 London Olympics could soon be making tracks to Harlow's new Leisurezone complex following its inclusion in the official pre-Games training camp guide.

The multi-million pound sports complex in Second Avenue only opened its doors to the public in June but has already won acclaim for its state-of-the-art facilities and could soon be used by athletes to train and acclimatise ahead of the London Games.

It is one of 65 elite venues in the East of England included in the London 2012 Pre-Games Training Camp Guide, which lists a total of 600 sports centres across the UK chosen for the standard of their facilities.

David Taylor of the Leisurezone's project management consultants Schal said the centre's inclusion in the guide recognised its position as one of the top sports facilities in the county.

"This eagerly awaited sports and leisure centre is now one of the most modern facilities in Essex, and this is something that has been acknowledged by its inclusion in the guide," he said.

Tony Hall, chairman of Harlow Council's environment policy working group and the council's Olympic Champion, added: "It is great news that athletes from around the world could be training in our state-of-the-art leisure centre in preparation for London 2012.

"We want Harlow to benefit from having the Olympic Games on its doorstep and this is one part of doing just that and also bringing new visitors to the town."

Thousands expected at town centre fun day

THOUSANDS of people are expected to flock to The Water Gardens on Saturday for the shopping centre's fourth annual fun day.

Activities at this year's event will include donkey rides, a pirate fun run, live performances by the Harlow Steel Band, a fortune teller, Punch & Judy shows, stilt walkers, birds of prey and a Find the Lamb competition.

Children who manage to track down all 14 hidden lambs will have their names put into a hat with the chance to win £75 worth of vouchers from The Entertainer toy shop.

The competition forms part of Harlow's Summertime Sheep Trail, for which 29 life-sized fibreglass sheep painted by local artists and hundreds of small cardboard cutout-lambs decorated by local schoolchildren have been placed at locations throughout the town centre.

The trail links art galleries, shops and shopping centres, cafés, offices, the bus station and Playhouse theatre and coincides with a new exhibition of Henry Moore sheep etchings at the Gibberd Gallery in Harlow Civic centre.

The fun day starts at 11am and will run until 4pm.

The love that survived the horror of war

By CHRIS MOSS

chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A SURVIVOR of the notorious Japanese prisoner of war camps celebrated his platinum wedding anniversary on Sunday with a surprise church service for family and friends.

Les Cox (90) and his wife, Hilda (89), of Little Pynchons, Harlow, tied the knot in Walthamstow 70 years ago, shortly before Mr Cox was posted to the Allied stronghold of Singapore.

He was captured when the country fell to the Japanese in 1942 and endured three-and-a-half years as a prisoner of war, during which time he was forced to work on the construction of the bridge over the River Kwai.

Back home in England Mrs Cox, who was serving in the Auxiliary Territorial Service, received no news of his whereabouts and feared the worst until her frail husband was repatriated to England in October 1945.

"He was just skin and bone when he arrived and I had to nurse him back to health," she said. "It was a tough time but I was just so glad he was still alive. I really thought I'd lost him forever."

The couple spent the next 15 years living in East London before moving to their current home in 1960 after Mr Cox secured a job at Harlow electronics firm STC.

"Coming to Harlow back then was like going on a wonderful holiday," he said. "The roads and paths weren't even finished when we moved in and we were surrounded by cornfields."

"It's incredible how much the town has grown and changed since those early days."

The couple have four children, seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, most of whom were able to attend their celebratory service at St Stephen's Church in Tye Green.

Asked the secret to their marriage, Mrs Cox said: "It's about give and take. We've always shared everything with one another.

"Most importantly, we still say 'I love you' to each other each and every day. Maybe that's the secret!"

Three injured in two-vehicle collision

POLICE have issued an appeal for witnesses to a serious road accident in North Weald which left three people in hospital.

The crash happened on High Road at around 7.30pm on Saturday and involved a silver Vauxhall Corsa and a blue Toyota 4x4.

Both the driver and passenger of the Vauxhall Corsa were seriously injured in the collision while the driver of the Toyota sustained minor injuries.

All three were taken to Harlow's

Princess Alexandra Hospital.

Police closed the road for several hours while a team of officers carried out an investigation of the scene.

was one of the most selfless people you could ever hope to meet.

"He always made sure he told us all how much he loved us. There won't be another bloke on this Earth like him."

His parents and sisters – Angie Walker and Sandra Faulkner – are now worried they will not get to say their final farewells to Ron at his funeral.

Gwendaline said: "I always thought that blood was thicker than water but that obviously isn't the case in the eyes of the law.

"Even though I carried him for nine months and gave birth to him, I now have no legal right to bury my own son. We have never seen eye to eye with Susan and it wouldn't surprise me if she didn't invite us to Ron's funeral."

Ron's sister Sandra, who also lives in Milton Keynes, added: "I have to take a back seat and hope she invites me to my own brother's funeral. It's just not right."

In a statement released after the end of the trial, Essex Police said: "The circumstances of Ronald Lowe's death were thoroughly investigated and all the evidence gathered placed before the court.

"We would like to thank the witnesses who gave up their time to give evidence at this trial. Our thoughts are now with Ronald's family."

Wife cleared of killing husband

A WOMAN accused of killing her husband with a single stab to the chest in an "uncontrolled rage" broke down in tears after the jury cleared her of murder.

Susan Lowe (55), of Long Ley, Harlow, wept uncontrollably as she walked from Chelmsford Crown Court aided by a relative. She said to the jury: "Thank you very much."

Mrs Lowe denied murdering her husband Ron (43), to whom she had been married for 19 years, at their home on August 30 last year.

She said he had stabbed himself after following her upstairs.

Although a neighbour told the jury she heard a row during which a woman had been threatening a man, Mrs Lowe said they were arguing about getting a divorce.

During the trial, prosecutor

By COURT REPORTER

Stephen Harvey said both Mr and Mrs Lowe had been drinking on the night Mr Lowe died from a single stab wound to the chest.

He said the argument was over an "indiscretion" Mr Lowe had committed with a mutual friend two years earlier.

The court heard evidence from pathologist Dr Nathaniel Carey, who said there were none of the hallmarks of a self-inflicted wound and in his opinion it had been carried out by a "third party".

But Mrs Lowe told jurors her husband had stabbed himself in his bare chest. She said he had been very angry, calling her names and being "really, really aggressive". She continued: "I told him I'd had enough. I was going to go to a solicitor for a divorce."

She said she locked herself in the bathroom but Mr Lowe followed her upstairs and flung open the door.

"He said he loved me," she told the court. "The knife was in his hand and I thought he was going to get me so I shut the door and wedged myself against it.

"Still standing there, Ron moved his arm and the knife came into the bathroom but there was no sign of any injury. I put the knife into the toilet cistern and then I saw the blood.

"He stood there looking at me and blood just started. He went to the bedroom and I stayed in the bathroom for a few minutes. I heard a thud, looked round and saw him on the floor."

The jury of six men and six women returned their not guilty verdict on Friday after nine hours and 49 minutes of deliberation.

STAFF at the Harlow branch of the NatWest bank are seeking nominations of local charities and projects to share in a newly launched community fund.A grant of £5,000 will be split between three good causes based in either Harlow, Epping, Hoddesdon,
Waltham Cross, Enfield or Bishop's Stortford as part of the bank's communities it serves.Nominations can be made by select three charities or projects.The public will then be invited to vote for their favourite, with the most popular receiving a £3,000 grant and two runners-up each receiving £1,000.Jenny Barker, senior bank manager at the Harlow branch, said:"NatWest has a long and proud history of helping good causes and our community fund will bring this support to a new level."By asking people in Harlow to nominate and vote for the charities or projects which are important to them, the fund will be directly supporting the communities the bank serves."

College set to deal with a flood of applications

HARLOW College is preparing for an unprecedented rush of applications for places following the release of exam results later this month.

As well as the usual flood of local enquiries, the college is also expecting inquiries from across the region from people interested in sitting Anglia Ruskin University courses.

Around 100 new higher education places will be available in September as part of the college's association with the university.

The courses are part-funded by £12m from the Higher Education Council for England.

To accommodate the anticipated level of inquiries, college staff will be offering face-to-face advice to students in addition to the usual clearing hotlines.

It will open on Thursday, August 19 from 8.30am-7pm and on Friday, August 20 from 8.30am-6pm for that purpose. The college will also be open the following week, beginning Monday August 23.

Students can also call the college hotline on (01279) 868139.

For Anglia Ruskin courses, students should call the university's dedicated hotline 0845 2713333 on both Saturday, August 21 and Sunday, August 22 from 8.30am-6pm.

Anyone calling the number should have an idea of the subject area they would like to study, their exam results and any questions they have about fees or accommodation.

Councillors paid £194k allowances & expenses

By CHRIS MOSS

chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

COUNCILLORS in Harlow have been paid almost £200,000 in expenses and allowances over the past financial year.

The figures, published by the authority this week, detail the amount of taxpayers' money paid to councillors for their basic and special responsibilities allowances as well as expenses they have claimed for travel, telephone calls and IT costs.

They show the total amount paid to councillors was £194,545.

Topping the list is Andrew Johnson, leader of the Conservative-run council, who received a total of £14,108.83 for the 2009/10 financial year.

A breakdown of his payments show he claimed £1,593.97 for travel and subsistence costs incurred when attending conferences, £775.50 in separate conference costs and £306.80 for mobile phone calls.

Second on the list is former deputy leader Simon Carter, who claimed a total of £10,986.35 for the year including £823.67 in car expenses, £240.10 for mobile phone calls and £777.95 in conference expenses.

Fellow Conservative councillor Lee Dangerfield claimed the most of all 33 members for mobile phone costs. His bill for the year was £1,040.25 – almost double the £560.29 he was paid last year.

The councillor who claimed the lowest amount was Liberal Democrat John Strachan. He was paid £436.37 to cover IT and landline expenses on top of his annual attendance allowance of £3,533.75.

A council spokesman told the Star the annual cost of allowances and expenses was much lower than most comparative authorities in Essex.

"Members' allowances and the conditions of the scheme are set by an independent panel," he said.

"Harlow Council's spend on allowances is much lower than most other Essex councils, with Harlow having the

"Some councils also allow councillors to receive more than one Special Responsibility Allowance whereas in Harlow councillors may only receive one SRA payment, even if they hold more than one position of responsibility."

Register... or lose your right to vote

REGISTRATION forms for the 2011 electoral register will be dropping through letterboxes in Harlow this month.

Anyone not included on the register will not be eligible to vote in local and national elections and may find themselves having trouble obtaining credit for things like a mortgage, mobile phone or bank loan.

Every household in the town will be sent a form which will be pre-printed with the details currently held for that address.

It is a legal requirement to respond every year, even if there are no changes to the printed details. From the end of September canvassers will be visiting all properties that have not replied and, if after that, no response is received the details will be removed from the register.

Registering for council tax does not automatically lead to inclusion on the electoral register.

The new register will be published on December 1 and will be available to view at the Civic Centre. Residents are advised to check that they are included and their details are correct.

If a referendum is held next year, the 2011 register will be used.

Where is the justice in closing our courts?

SIR, Further to last week's front page report on proposed court closures, Harlow Trades Union Council are opposed to the closure of courts in Harlow.

We are naturally opposed to cost-cutting measures that will lead to job losses and impose extra burdens on already hard-pressed working class people.

The idea that people in Harlow who do not own cars or are prevented from using one due to age or illness should have to use sparse public transport to get to Chelmsford is quite outrageous.

As solicitor Tony Scott stated in your story, one would have to catch a bus at 7.30am to ensure reaching Chelmsford in time for a 10am hearing. This will obviously lead to people failing to attend court on time and lead to more cases being adjourned.

In turn this will impose costs on the taxpayer and no doubt sanctions being taken by the court for late or non-attendance. It will also reduce the court's productivity and lead to longer incarceration and higher costs for remanded prisoners.

Not only will travelling to Chelmsford be inconvenient and time consuming, it will also be quite expensive. As many people who are required to attend court are on low incomes, the transport costs will deter some people from attending.

The move of the county court to Cambridge will create similar problems. The costs of transport to Cambridge are even higher, especially as one would have to catch a train during the peak travel period.

Combined with funding cutbacks for the Harlow Advice Centre, we see this as an attack on the rights of ordinary working class people to defend their legal rights against unscrupulous employers, landlords, businesses and an overzealous state. Justice should not be the preserve of the rich and powerful but should be available for all classes in society without restriction if we are to have true equality and freedom.

David Forman

Shop is undermining a fundamental right

SIR, J. West is wrong to say that One Stop's insistence on the provision of certain types of ID before serving alcohol is a principled stand which should be commended (Letters, August 5). It is, in fact, a desperate attempt to keep their licence after serving alcohol to minors. Rather than imposing such a penalty, surely it would have been better for Harlow Council to order the shop to employ staff who can tell the difference between a 17-year-old and a 67-year-old.

The law is that anybody can buy alcohol provided they are (a) 18 or over; (b) not banned because of criminal or other bad behaviour. On insisting on ID, One Stop is, albeit reluctantly, undermining a fundamental right. This is why the Star was right to report on the matter.

Chris Page
The Stow, Harlow

A bus pass should be accepted as ID

SIR, J. West's comments on the

We will strive name of which

SIR, I am writing in reply to Moira Curry's letter regarding the name of our new school building at Traces Road (Star, August 5).

Schools are not about geographical locations or buildings. They are a complex set of relationships, a shared ethos and a mutual focus on partnership to improve the life chances of our young people. Whether to keep the name of our school as Passmores is far from my decision alone; this would be egotistical of any individual.

Passmores School and Technology College is not being closed, far from it. Our school is a vibrant centre for learning, a caring community and a place of growth for everyone involved.

The relationships and ethos are incredibly important and personal to me and everyone else at the school. We have worked hard to gain an 'outstanding' grade from Ofsted, to year-on-year beat government-set targets for the academic performance of our young people, to represent Harlow with a sense of purpose and pride and develop an excellent reputation for the whole school community in Essex and nationally.

The students, parents, staff and governors have made it clear that we will remain as Passmores School and Technology College. We all love our school and everything that our name embodies.

I will strive, as will everyone else, to make sure that our name is something to be proud of and that the Harlow community and wider a field will, hopefully, share in our pride.

I extend an invite to Ms Curry to a tour of our fantastic school when we start back in September and to view our wonderful young people in their studies in order for her to judge for herself whether a school is about its location or its people.

I am privileged to be the headteacher of Passmores School and Technology College and I serve it to the best of my ability. I will continue to work tirelessly to make it the best it could possibly be for the young people that choose to make it THEIR school.

Vic Goddard, Headteacher
Passmores School and Technology College

SIR, In response to Moira Curry's letter about the new Passmores School, it definitely is Passmores and always will be. I am a parent with three travel abroad the first thing they do is put it in a safe.

This shop encourages elderly people who have never driven or no longer can drive through ill health to carry this document around with them, leaving them wide open to unscrupulous people.

Bus lane has turned road into race track

SIR, Since the completion of the new bus lanes along First Avenue it has become a race track.

It has a 40mph speed limit but drivers seem to want to race anything that is allowed to be in the bus lane, often breaking the speed limit.

Vehicles trying to turn right have great difficulty as the speed of the traffic is so fast. Pedestrians trying to cross the road also find it extremely difficult as there are few crossing points while vehicles such as minicabs and passenger transport ambulances can often be seen using this lane.

It seems to me that there are no policing measures for this stretch of road and something will only be done when there has been a serious accident.

Keep on rocking for town's young people

children at Passmores and an employee of the school and there was no question of the name being changed. Students, parents and staff were all asked if they thought a name change would be good for the school and the response was a unanimous no.

Wherever the school is located makes no difference to what it is called.

I also live in the Passmores area and have absolutely no problem with the school being a mile or so down the road. In this time of cutbacks and slashing of services, I can't imagine Ms Curry would expect parents to fork out for new uniforms, new school badges and ties which all bear the Passmores logo and are worn with pride by the students. And what a waste of taxpayers money to change all the stationary and signage that will move with us to the new school.

Proud to be Passmores School? Yes we are, no matter where the buildings are located.

the night and also for the hard work and dedication of the people who work with these youngsters and those who work so hard to secure the funds to allow this to continue.

My son has been attending the rock school since Easter and the progress he has made both in terms of musical ability and self confidence is amazing.

I understand they are struggling to secure funding for the rock school to continue. It provides an outlet for so many young people to join together in their love of music it would be a real shame if this cannot continue due to lack of funding.

People in Harlow should not allow this fantastic group to disappear. If anyone is able to help they should contact the Friends of Harlow Rock School.

Hospital staff deserving of the highest praise

SIR, I would like to express my gratitude to the staff at Princess Alexandra Hospital for the fantastic care I received there recently.

This was my first experience as an in-patient at this hospital after I was admitted for an emergency operation. So very often we hear negative reports of the NHS and its shortcomings but I have nothing but praise for all the staff I encountered. Every one of them was friendly, helpful and courteous whilst maintaining a professional manner.

We are all too quick to criticise when things aren't to our liking but rarely do we take the time to express gratitude. Yes, I had an horrendous wait after arriving at A&E in the morning but who knows what emergencies were unfolding behind the scenes? It could be our child, parent or other relative/friend in need of immediate urgent medical attention.

I must particularly mention the staff on Penn Ward who treated me with the utmost respect. Everyone genuinely seemed to care about my wellbeing and I felt like an individual with needs, not a statistic.

The cleaners, volunteers, auxiliary and nursing staff were all so very pleasant whilst going about their daily duties.

My immediate family live 200 miles away so naturally, being concerned for my welfare, telephoned the hospital on many occasions to be updated on my progress. All calls were dealt with with the utmost courtesy and my family were kept informed regularly regarding my condition.

I am so grateful to you all at PAH. Keep up the good work; you are doing a grand job.

Eileen Kingston
Finchmoor, Harlow

Government should ban tobacco displays

SIR, We all know that young people are influenced by what they see around them.

It is ridiculous that cigarettes are openly on sale in newsagents and supermarkets, often next to the sweets and crisps by the counter. The brightly lit, colourful displays show off rows of cigarette brands like huge adverts for tobacco.

The Coalition Government has the power to get shops to cover up their displays. It would not cost them very much and would take away one of the ways tobacco companies market their deadly products to children.

I hope the Government takes this opportunity to stop today's children becoming tomorrow's smokers.

Story behind coats of arms

By DAN PHILLIPS

daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

VISITORS to the town centre may have spotted coats of arms adorning various civic structures.

The meaning and stories behind these decorations might be lost on the casual observer but the launch of a new pamphlet on Saturday will explain their significance.

Armorial Bearings In Harlow by local history buff Ron Bill examines the coats of arms used by Harlow Council, Harlow Development Corporation, Essex County Council and others.

Mr Bill includes a detailed description of each, which will please those with an eye for detail. Take the blue, black and silver armorial bearing of the development corporation, pictured right, which dates back to 1948. Its silver colour and fleurs-de-lis are a reference to none other than the Premonstratensians, a Roman Catholic order of canons who were at Great Parndon until 1180.

Other reference points for the coat of arms include the Order of the White Canons, the Abbey of Bury St Edmunds and the county of Essex.

When Harlow Council came into existence it was decided not to adopt the corporation's symbol. Instead, a competition was held to design a new one.

Competition details and guidance notes for designs were sent out to local schools and the council received 40 responses.

It was agreed that a final coat of arms would incorporate the designs of the best three entries, with the top prize of five guineas (£5.25p) going to local resident G. Brissenden.

The crown at the centre represents the town and its green surround its rural setting. The red diamonds represent the movement of people from London to Harlow.

After the final design was agreed Harlow was one of the few towns in the UK to have two coats of arms.

● Armorial Bearings In Harlow, priced at £2.50, will be launched at the Museum of Harlow at 11am on Saturday. All are welcome.

NOSTALGIA UPDATE: Harlow's 2,000th home

RECENTLY we carried a report on the ceremony to mark Harlow's 2,000th home back in 1953.

The house in Orchard Croft was such a landmark that it made the front page of the local newspaper at the time.

Fast forward 15 years to 1968 and it was time for more celebrations as the 20,000th home was completed.

Harlow was the first new town to reach this landmark and ministers in Whitehall were obviously very pleased with the achievement as housing and local government minister Anthony Greenwood dropped by to open the home.

Pictured in this photograph are, from left to right, housing manager Cliff Jackman, Mr Greenwood, Mr and Mrs Andrews and their children, Harlow Council chairman Derek Score and Sir John Newsom, chairman of Harlow Development Corporation.

● If you have any memories or pictures of Harlow you would like to share with our readers, send them to Nostalgia, Harlow Star, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

From the Star 25 years ago

Rush to the sun

Harlow people have been rushing to grab a holiday in the sun this week after giving up on the British summer. Travel agents in the town reported a mad dash to book late holidays to sunnier climes.

Dancing at Peels

Peels, the revamped Orange Footman pub in Staple Tye, was granted an entertainment licence by Harlow Council following a public meeting. The licence means that dancing will be allowed from Monday-Saturday.

Banking on a call

Reporters at the Star were inundated with requests for overdrafts, statements and loans this week after being given a new telephone number formally assigned to the Midland Bank in The High.

Rock for Africa

Hundreds of people braved heavy rain to support a rock concert at the Town Park in aid of the starving people in Ethiopia. At the end of the concert the audience moved forwards and emptied their pockets of change onto the stage.

Thug found guilty of breaking man's jaw with a punch

A THUG who broke a partygoer's jaw in an unprovoked attack has been convicted of causing grievous bodily harm.

Benjamin Hills (27), of Potter Street, Harlow, denied wounding Alexander Kelf at an 18th birthday party in December 2008 but was found guilty of the charge by a jury at Chelmsford Crown Court on Monday.

The judge adjourned sentencing until next month.

The prosecution said the victim, who lives in North Weald, was smoking a cigarette outside when a fight between Hills and another youth spilled out on to the street.

When Hills was pulled off the other man he ran towards Mr Kelf and punched him once in the jaw, fracturing it in two places. As a result, he has had two titanium plates permanently inserted.

Hills denied being involved in any fight and said he did not punch Mr Kelf. He accused Mr Kelf of lying when he identified him as his attacker.

Two face charges after disturbance

TWO people were arrested following reports of a disturbance in the Churchfield area of Harlow on Sunday afternoon.

The incident, an apparent dispute between neighbours, occurred at around 3.30pm. Police arrested a 47-year-old man and a 50-year-old woman.

The man has been charged with affray and three counts of possession of an offensive weapon while the woman was charged with assault by beating.

College student on song for final of competition

A HARLOW College student needs the help of the public to win a national singing competition run by a West End theatre company.

BTEC Performing Arts student Elyssa Dean (17) sang Somewhere That's Green from The Little Shop of Horrors to win a place in the final of WEK Factor run by West End Kids.

She said: "I am so thrilled to be in the final and want to say a big thank you to all those who have supported me so far."

"It's my dream to have a career in the theatre and hopefully success in this competition would help me on my way."

Elyssa, who lives in Hoddesdon, is a member of

Mayhem Theatre Arts where she is studying for LAMDA Grade 8

She started singing aged 8 and since then has performed in numerous local shows and festivals, and has been a regular finalist in the Hertfordshire singing competition Pop Luck.

To register and vote for Elyssa, visit the website www.wekfactor.com before the closing date of next Thursday.

A HAVE-A-GO hero who chased and caught a shoplifter has been awarded £200 by a court.

Stuart Lovell had been inside Metwest Chemist's at Staple Tye, Harlow, on June 26 when the defendant, Martin Pink, ran off after a commotion inside the shop.

As Pink, of Hull Grove, Harlow, attempted to flee the scene on his bike, Mr Lovell caught up with him and grabbed him.

There was a scuffle during which Pink bit Mr Lovell on both thumbs.

On Tuesday Pink pleaded guilty at Chelmsford Crown Court to two charges of theft. He was jailed for eight months.

Judge Charles Gratwick ordered that a separate offence of assault by beating, which Pink denied, should lie on file as there were no injuries.

Richard Stevens, prosecuting, said Pink stole hair straighteners worth £61.29 from Sally Hair and Beauty Supplies at Staple Tye on June 7 and make-up worth

By COURT REPORTER
star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

£77.76 from the chemists two weeks later.

Mr Stevens said: "Mr Lovell saw what happened and went out, chased and caught Pink. There was a scuffle on the ground and the defendant was arrested."

He added that Mr Lovell was delighted to have carried out a public duty.

James Howard, representing Pink, said in mitigation his client had no use for any of the items he stole and had taken them to pay for drugs.

"He has an unenviable record," said Mr Howard. "He's a long-term heroin and cocaine user and there's no rhyme nor reason for what he does other than feeding his drug habit."

Passing sentence, the judge told Pink: "You're nothing but a dishonest, petty thief. If you want something you take it."

Awarding Mr Lovell £200, he praised him for being public spirited.

Giant iceball breaks the record (and a few cars!)

A LUMP of ice the size of a small football has smashed records for the biggest and heaviest hailstone ever found.

Hailstones are normally small pellets of ice which, like rain, fall harmlessly from the sky during certain weather conditions.

But on this occasion the mammoth ice rock that dropped during a treacherous storm in the American town of Vivian caused thousands of dollars worth of damage to residents' homes and cars.

The record-breaking hailstone measured a whopping 20.5cm across and weighed in at almost 1kg – about the same as a large bag of sugar.

The man who found the hailstone, Lee Scott, said it had been even bigger when he first picked it up but it had started to melt.

The storm caused most of the town's power supply to be cut so he was unable to use his freezer to keep the hailstone frozen.

"I'm glad I got it I guess," he told reporters.

The hailstone has broken records for both weight and size. The previous weight record was set in 1970 in Kansas when a hailstone weighing almost 750g was found. The old record for size was set seven years ago by a hailstone measuring 17.8cm wide.

It was discovered in the state of Nebraska.

Your chance to launch a new business idea

Are you a budding entrepreneur?
It's time to shout about your ideas....

LAUNCH Pad, the competition which gives budding entrepreneurs living in and around Harlow the chance to make their business dreams come true.

In the 10 weeks since its was unveiled it has generated applications from people of all ages and backgrounds.

And the good news for those who may have missed the launch or been in two minds about whether or not to enter, there is still time.

Launch Pad is one of the most exciting and imaginative schemes to have hit the town, with the sole purpose of fulfilling someone's ambition of starting their own business by giving them that first step up on the ladder.

The lucky winner will receive dedicated mentoring, advice and guidance from each of the expert judges

It is open to anyone over the age of 16 and living in Harlow or the surrounding district (including Epping, North Weald, Sawbridge-worth, Bishop's Stortford and Stansted) who has a business idea they believe could be the next best thing.

All applicants will be reviewed and a shortlist drawn up. The candidates will then be invited to pitch their concepts to an expert panel of local businessmen to support them in successfully launching their business idea.

The presentations will be filmed and uploaded to the Launch Pad website, at which point members of the public will have a chance to vote for their favourites.

The judging panel

The panel of experts have been hand-picked to represent local business leaders from a cross section of expertise. All will bring their own invaluable skills and experience to the process and to help launch the winning idea. They are:

ROBERT ELLICE
Managing Director
Clarke Hillyer

JONATHAN CLARKE
Senior Partner
Attwaters Solicitors

MARK WILLIAMSON
Relationship Manager
Lloyds TSB

JON O'SHEA
Partner, Haslers
Chartered Accountants

CHRIS GREENHILL
Co-founder, Harlow
Business Mentors

IAN HUDSON
Vice Chairman, Harlow
Chamber of Commerce

The candidates will the greatest number of votes will win a place in the final and a second chance to present their ideas to the panel of judges, who will then decide which of the ideas they believe will be the next big thing.

One of the organisers of Launch Pad is Bryan Hunt of property services company Clarke Hillyer, who said this week: "The response so far has been fantastic but we feel there are more budding entrepreneurs out there with great ideas but who maybe a little shy or intimidated to come forward."

"This is a great shame. The panel of experts to whom they will present their ideas are a very friendly group of highly successful people and are there to help and support our budding entrepreneurs, not scare them away!"

He added: "The ideas that have come in so far have been extremely varied, from the simple but imaginative to the bold and brash money-spinners."

"The competition will be closing in mid September so now is the time to put pen to paper or, in this case, fingers to keyboard by logging on to www.launchpad-harlow.org and registering your idea. Who knows, you could be the next big thing."

The ideas that have already been submitted are all varied in their nature, making this an interesting competition. And remember, great things come from small beginnings so no idea is too small or too bizarre.

"The list is endless as the next big thing could be a charity event to raise money, a new gadget that people can't live without, a new child's toy that will be a sellout at Christmas or a new style of restaurant to fill a gap in the town," said Bryan.

"We have had a good response rate since we launched but there is still time for you to submit your idea. Don't be shy; what have you got to lose?"

Photographer's view of the ties that bind

By CHRIS MOSS

chris.moss@hertssexnews.co.uk

"NO man is an island entire of itself every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main."

So reads one of celebrated metaphysical poet John Donne's most famous lines. And those words are now inspiring a Harlow photographer to piece together an ambitious art project exploring the nature of human relationships.

Through photographing people of every creed, colour and class, Christopher Tew hopes to capture a complex snapshot of human interdependence and examine the ties that bind us to one another.

"I see the project as a documentary piece really," he told the Star. "I took John Donne's poem as a starting point and wanted to expand upon its themes by highlighting the importance of human relationships."

"The key is to explain that as individuals we may be able to survive but it's only when we connect with one another that we are truly happy and fulfilled."

Christopher has already started photographing his own friends and family, shooting his images against the neutral backdrop of The Harvey Centre car park. But now he needs local residents interested in participating in the project to volunteer their faces and stories.

"I am looking for as many different people to take part and capture, of all ages, ethnicities, sizes - anyone and every one with a connection to someone else is welcome to take part."

The images captured will be exhibited early next year before being published in a book.

Anyone interested in taking part in the project can contact Christopher on 07538 775884 or send an email to christophertew@hotmail.com.

Phoenix youngsters celebrate exam success

TALENTED young thespians studying at a Harlow performing arts school took a step closer to a dream career in showbiz after passing their Group LAMDA exams with flying colours.

A total of 56 senior drama students from Phoenix Theatre School were rewarded with a distinction - the highest grade possible - after performing their own pieces in front of a panel of examiners from the world-renowned London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art.

The performances were developed in class at Phoenix's headquarters in Burnt Mill School and first shown at the school's annual showcase at Harlow Playhouse in March.

The directors of two of the exam pieces, 17-year-old students Theo Ancient and Tom Brace, are already reaping the rewards of their LAMDA success after both secured opportunities to further develop their skills outside the school.

Theo has won a place at the Oxford School of Drama to study a six-month foundation course in acting, while Tom has landed the part of Billy in the forthcoming pantomime performance of Jack & The Beanstalk at Bishop's Stortford's Rhodes Arts Centre.

Phoenix principal Phil Dale, pictured with Tom, said: "I'm incredibly proud that the students have done so well in the first year of these exams."

"They are designed to equip candidates, whatever their age or aspirations, with a range of skills that will serve them throughout life. They also build confidence and self esteem and promote team working and these are all the principles I hold dear for the school."

"I knew the students had worked hard but for all of them to get the highest grade possible is really quite exceptional."

For full details of all the classes available at Phoenix and for information on how to join the school, log onto www.phoenixtheatreschool.co.uk or call 08456 800 640.

Wizards go head to head in a battle of good vs evil

THE SORCERER'S APPRENTICE
certificate 12A 1h49m

HALFWAY through Jon Turteltaub's fast-paced yarn, the eponymous hero calls upon what little magical knowledge he possesses to command an army of mops to clean his secret hideaway.

It only takes a couple of notes of Paul Dukas's rhythmic orchestral work, featured most famously in the Disney animation Fantasia, for us to realise that enchanted cleaning tools and endless buckets of sloshing water are a recipe for disaster or a sizeable insurance claim.

Like so much in the film, this well-orchestrated scene promises copious tongue-in-cheek thrills but doesn't quite deliver.

Turteltaub's film has its pleasures, including a Chinatown dragon on poles that metamorphoses into an actual mythical beastie that rampages through the New York district. But the weak potion of family-friendly action, comedy and romance doesn't linger in the memory for long.

As a boy, Dave Stutler (Jake Cherry) wanders into the Arcana Cabana antiques store and has a strange conversation with its owner, Balthazar Blake (Nicolas Cage), who reveals that the youngster is to become a great wizard and defeat the forces of evil under the control of evil Morgana Le Fay (Alice Krige).

Before Balthazar can begin the youngster's tuition, dastardly rival Maxim Horvath (Alfred Molina) intervenes and a fight ensues, trapping both sorcerers inside a magical urn.

Ten years later to the day, Dave (now played by Jay Baruchel) is a brilliant physics student with an unrequited crush on pretty classmate Becky (Teresa Palmer). Balthazar and Maxim finally escape their pottery purgatory and both men race to track down Dave, who possesses an enchanted Russian doll that imprisons Morgana for all eternity.

Thankfully, Dave has Balthazar to protect him while he learns the basics of sorcery. So Maxim takes his own apprentice, world famous illusionist Drake Stone (Toby Kebbell), and together they plot Morganas' resurrection.

Turteltaub's film certainly isn't complicated and you won't need to cast a spell of clairvoyance to foresee how Dave's journey ends, nor to recognise the potential opening for a sequel.

THE LAST AIRBENDER
certificate PG 1h43m

Orphaned siblings Sokka (Jackson Rathbone) and Katara (Nicola Peltz) discover a young boy called Aang (Noah Ringer) frozen in the ice near their village.

The lad is covered in strange tattoos and the siblings surmise that Aang must be the Avatar, destined to manipulate the four elements (air, water, earth, fire).

No sooner have the children arrived back at their village than outcast Prince Zuko (Dev Patel) and his soldiers from the Fire Nation capture Aang and hold him hostage aboard their ship. Thankfully, the prisoner escapes and begins the journey back to his temple, accompanied by Sokka and Katara.

Meanwhile, Zuko's father Fire Lord Ozai (Cliff Curtis) entreats trusted Commander Zhao (Aasif Mandvi) to find Aang and prevent the boy from achieving his destiny.

THE EXPENDABLES (preview)
certificate 15 1h43m

Barney Ross (Sylvester Stallone) is the leader of a band of mercenaries known as The Expendables – guns for hire with the firepower and the resources to accomplish the jobs that seem impossible.

These hard men are hired to overthrow General Giza (David Zayas), who rules the small island of Vilena with an iron fist.

Barney is joined by the usual suspects – former SAS operative Lee Christmas (Jason Statham), martial arts master Yin Yang (Jet Li), weapons specialist Hale Caesar (Terry Crews), demolitions expert Toll Road (Randy Couture) and combat veteran Gunnar Jensen (Dolph Lundgren) – on a mission to infiltrate the island.

But Barney and the gang soon discover that Gaza isn't the only enemy on Vilena: rogue CIA agent James Monroe (Eric Roberts) and his hulking bodyguard Paine (Steve Austin) are pulling the strings.

MARMADUKE (preview)
certificate U 1h28m

Marmaduke (voiced by Owen Wilson) is a lumbering Great Dane with a nose for trouble. His owners, Phil (Lee Pace) and Debbie Winslow (Judy Greer), decide to uproot their family for his work, transplanting Marmaduke and the family cat, Carlos (George Lopez), to the other side of the country.

As the Great Dane becomes acquainted with his new surroundings, he makes friends with three dogs – Mazie (Emma Stone), Raisin (Steve Coogan) and Giuseppe (Christopher Mintz-Plasse) – who introduce him to the Bark Park where a fearsome Rottweiler called Bosco (Kiefer Sutherland) rules with his sweetheart, Jezebel (Stacy Ferguson).

Poor Marmaduke falls under Jezebel's spell but he is a weakling next to Bosco. However, the Great Dane possesses untapped skills which might just put the top dog in the shade.

Your stars with
Patrick Arundell
to guide you through the week ahead

Aries Mar 21-Apr 20
Friction may have entered a tie, even in the past, it never occurred to you that it would. Perhaps there have been patterns working away that have never really fully surfaced. However, the arrival of Venus in your partnership sector can work wonders. Perhaps both of you need to be a little kinder. Why not make the first move yourself Aries? Call your prediction line for more news and advice...

Libra Sept 24-Oct 23
The big mover in the heavens is Venus, your gorgeous ruling planet. After last week's bumps and scrapes of the Mars/Saturn conjunction this can help to soothe things. You can also add your raw sex appeal, the smoother dimension for which you are so known. If you are solo, the rest of this month promises to be a time of exploration and saucy fun! Call me now for your love scope in full...

Taurus Apr 21-May 21
Be gentle with yourself. If you've been flat out recently, this is an ideal time to pause, reflect and pamper. Book yourself in for a nice haircut, pedicure, manicure or massage. Your body will love being made a fuss of, and remember there is a human aspect to this, respect there may be sharing how you feel, and having a therapist care for you can be immensely nurturing. Call me for your in-depth forecast...

Scorpio Oct 24-Nov 22
Hidden issues in your love life will need to be confronted once and for all. If there have been emotional scenes, it may be because someone is finding it difficult to say how they really feel. Don't try to force things into the open, but if you can both respect there may be emotions that one of you finds hard to understand, it will help to get the dialogue moving. Call for your love scope in full...

Gemini May 22-Jun 21
Solo? The next month can change all that with someone very seductive entering your situation, and perhaps even sweeping you off your feet. Solo and happy to indulge yourself and have fun? There is unlikely to be any lack of admirers. If there have been harsh words in a settled union, try to do something pleasurable to reignite the magic together. Call now for your love scope in full...

Sagittarius Nov 23-Dec 21
The friction that crept into last week can be resolved through taking a step back and feeling less threatened if others and in particular friends, have different ideas. If you can just bite your tongue and embrace diplomacy, there can be a rapid about turn in relations. Who knows, someone in your circle can also take on a more alluring romantic vibe now. Call for more news and astral advice...

Cancer Jun 22-Jul 23
Have you been a bit too quick to take offence recently? If so this week offers an ideal opportunity to extend the olive branch. Then again it can be someone close who seems more affectionate once again. Family parties and gatherings can be back on, and there can be a lot to look forward to socially, for the rest of this month. You may play host Cancer. Call me for more astral advice...

Capricorn Dec 22-Jan 20
If you and the boss or a colleague, have been finding it difficult to see eye to eye, why not call a truce and try to improve things? With a little more understanding on both sides, even if you can't be bosom buddies, mutual respect can forge a more harmonious tie. At home, try incentivizing youngsters to do more. In love an older person can appeal. Call your prediction line for more...

Leo Jul 24-Aug 23
Not only will your conversation take on new energy, you can find yourself surrounded, with folk keen to be part of your gang. This can mean greater interaction with those in your everyday life or a flirty link developing with someone you see locally. You can also spend more time with one sibling. A short break or camping trip may be considered by you. Call now for your love scope in full...

Aquarius Jan 21-Feb 19
Someone can capture your attention, but this is unlikely to be a person, who is, well...ordinary. No, now you can find yourself fascinated by differences, seeing them as a great way to expand your world and your thinking. If you love spending time on-line, a foreign or overseas connection can get your senses buzzing. A salsa class can also prove intriguing. Call now for your in-depth forecast...

Virgo Aug 24-Sept 23
Look to bring comfort into your life. You may not need bottles of money to the sultry Venus burrows its way into the steamiest part amount of imagination can of your situation. It can also help. You may also start to think more about food and diet. If you have a particular love for rich, sticky stuff, you may find that despite your recent protestations that you would cut down, your and more valuable. There resolve starts to waver. ## 2/3-bed period cottage dating to 18th century

THIS two/three bedroom period cottage, dating back to the 18th century, has been renovated to an extremely high standard by the current owners but retains many original features which means the character of the property has not been spoilt.

Accommodation comprises an entrance porch, lounge (11'3 x 10'7) with original fireplace and exposed beams, and an inner hallway with door to the rear garden.

The bespoke kitchen (10' x 8'5) with solid oak flooring has been constructed to an art deco design with a good selection of eye and base level units, solid wood work surfaces, built-in electric oven with separate four-ring gas hob and extractor, plumbing for a washing machine and space for a fridge freezer.

The ground floor bathroom comprises a three-piece white suite with P-shaped bath and shower attachment, concealed flush WC, pedestal wash hand basin, shaver point and ladder style radiator.

On the first floor there are two bedrooms (11'2 x 10'6 with built in wardrobes and 10' x 8'4).

Stairs lead up to the third bedroom (13' x 11'4) which is one of the most attractive rooms in the house, with many original features including exposed brickwork and beams.

Outside, the rear garden measures approximately 80ft in length and is mainly laid to lawn, with mature trees, shrub borders and a shed.

To the front of the property there is a dropped kerb and driveway.

It's another Mini adventure

By MATT JOY

LOVE the original 1959 Mini? You might want to look away now. Everyone else on the other hand can lean forward and pay close attention. Mini the brand is at it again with the fourth body style to be spun off the hatchback, designed to push the same buttons but offering a little bit more in the process.

Say hello to the Mini Countryman.

Spotters will recognise in Countryman another name to come from the Austin bloodline. The original Mini Countryman was, to all intents and purposes, a Mini estate, bringing more practicality to a familiar small car. So it is with the new Countryman and the most obvious point of note is that it is pushing the boundaries of what can be called a small car.

At 4,110mm long it's just 12cm shorter than a BMW 1-Series, and a full 41cm longer than a regular Mini hatchback. This XXL Mini is, therefore, quite different in terms of cabin space and appearance.

Looks-wise, the Countryman certainly fits into the crossover camp. Choose a Cooper S ALL4 such as this and the high-riding stance, general visual toughness and chunky detailing suggest the ability to cope with pretty

FACTfile

Mini Countryman
Cooper S ALL4

£19,875

ENGINE 1.6-litre turbocharged petrol producing 181bhp
TRANSMISSION Six-speed manual driving all four wheels
PERFORMANCE 0-62mph in 7.8 seconds / top speed 130mph
ECONOMY 42.2mpg combined
CO<sub>2</sub> EMISSIONS 157g/km much anything. It remains, however, unmistakably a Mini, even though it pushes the boundaries of the dimensions which its name suggests.

You will have already decided whether or not the looks get the thumbs up, but what will be met with almost universal approval is the resulting extra room. Up front there's a pleasingly upright dashboard and seating position with decent head and legroom, but step into the back seats and there's the kind of space that will push the Countryman on to many more shopping lists.

There's a choice of a regular bench or a neat two-seat rear arrangement, both of which come with a neat centre storage rail and allow numerous tilt, slide and fold options. Either way, rear seat head and legroom is good enough even for the irritatingly lanky.

There's what can only be described as a proper boot out the back, too. In standard configuration it offers a deep if relatively short 340 litres, but sliding the rear seats increases this and with all the seats folded there's a van-like 1,340 litres available.

Where a regular Mini hatchback means you have to think about what loads you want to carry, the Countryman allows the chuck-it-all-in approach.

It comes in a number of different flavours, too: One, Cooper and Cooper S you will be familiar with, but at the top of the range comes the Cooper S ALL4, which brings in the extra factor of four-wheel drive. The electromagnetic centre differential distributes power between the front and rear, with on-demand control to help minimise a fuel consumption penalty. In certain conditions it can transfer 100 per cent of the drive to the rear wheels to maximise traction.

Mated to either the new turbocharged 1.6-litre petrol or 1.6-litre diesel versions, the ALL4 Countryman is as surefooted as a car of this size can be. The seamless transfer of power is virtually undetectable: this is four-wheel drive for dummies as there are no complicated buttons to make it all work.

All the driver will notice is that the Cooper S ALL4 hauls itself out of tight bends with very little effort, and every one of its 181bhp can be deployed almost all the time.

There's no obvious cost in terms of agility or smoothness either. The Countryman is just as pointy and keen to play as the hatchback, although its larger dimensions and secure four-wheel drive mean it's not quite the hooligan's delight. But it's as sharp as all but the most rabid wheelsmith could want, particularly as it does so while sacrificing little in terms of comfort.

Quiet and efficient, the Countryman will pick off long distance journeys with ease and, thanks to slightly taller tyres, the ride quality is better, too.

The rest of the package is typical Mini: there are stacks of personalisation options, the cabin is retro-heaven and well constructed, and there is a version to suit almost every budget.

The Mini Countryman may not be the most practical car in this class but what it does achieve is extending the Mini values – sharp driving experience, a premium feel and a sense of fun – into a package that can carry passengers and luggage.

It's the Mini to suit every day and almost every person, so expect to join an orderly queue.

They think it's all over - but it's not now!

Epping Foresters 83-3, Harlow Tn 84-2

Harlow Tn won by eight wickets
Herts & Essex Cricket League, division one north

EXCELLENT twenty-over skills were shown by Harlow Town as they defeated title-chasers Epping Foresters at home on Saturday.

Due to the rain both sides agreed to limit the match to 20 overs each.

Epping Foresters batted first and were two wickets down with only four runs on the board after Ashley Alderson had removed both openers.

Rain then brought a three-hour delay which left the wicket in a sodden state.

Foresters, keen to get 26 points for a win and enhance their title ambitions rather than accept four points for a no result, wanted to play.

Harlow Town agreed to the 20-over contest but that decision proved fruitful for the hosts.

Foresters ended with 83-3 from their 20 overs.

In reply, the home side reached 34-2.

However, Ashley Alderson hit 36 runs off just 17 balls and Shiraz Ali made 26 not out as Town reached their target in only the 11th over to claim a maximum haul of 26 points.

The result lifted Harlow Town into third spot and just 17 points behind second-placed Epping Foresters.

There are three matches left for teams in this league.

Record breaker Karl's the king!

A STUNNING club record innings from Karl Seecharan has moved Harlow Town III into the promotion places in division six of the Herts & Essex Cricket League.

Seecharan's knock of 197 helped Town thump Stansted Hall III by 174 runs.

Seecharan certainly rediscovered his form with the bat as he narrowly missed out on what would have been a phenomenal double century.

Stansted Hall could only muster 184-8 in response.

The clash between Harlow Town II and Potter Street in division three was abandoned because of rain.

Harlow Town II remain in second spot four points ahead of third-placed High Beach.

Other result:- Div 7: Potter Street II (275-7) bt High Roding III (109) by 166 runs.

Jo named in England squad

HARLOW'S Joanne Harten has been selected for the England netball squad to compete in the Commonwealth Games in Delhi this October.

The trials took place last weekend at Loughborough University.

In preparation for this tournament, the squad will be travelling to Jamaica for a two Test series at the beginning of September.

The England squad will leave for India on September 28 when they will be one of the favourites for a medal.

Joanne, at 21, is the youngest member of the 12-person squad.

Olympian visits gymnasts at Harlow club

YOUNG enthusiasts from Harlow Gymnastics Club were given a lift when Great Britain Olympian Marissa King gave them words of encouragement.

King, who represented Team GB in the 2008 Beijing Olympics in China, is preparing for the London 2012 Olympics.

She visited the club's headquarters at

Gymnastics

Summers Leisure Centre in Broadley Road last month.

A club spokesperson said: "She encouraged the girls to keep training hard to fulfill their dreams."

Harlow coach Gordon Mitchell, who coached Marissa at Cambridge in the early part of her career, said: "It boosted the training schedule that day. She gave them tips on moves and she looked at their routines."

The girls are gearing up for their next big competition in September. This is a county-wide competition and take places at Colchester.

The club runs separate classes for gymnasts aged five upwards and for children under five.

Tomas unlucky at GB Champs

TWELVE-year-old swimmer Tomas Stevens clocked a personal best as he narrowly missed out on a medal at the British Gas National Swimming Championships.

The Harlow swimmer competed in the 50m pool in Sheffield in two events, the 100m and 200m backstroke.

Tomas went into the National Championships ranked 8th in the 100m backstroke with a time of 1 min 10.86 secs, but knew he had to perform well as in the heats before him boys of 12 were achieving times as low as 1 min 8 secs.

In Tomas's heat he set a personal best (PB) of 1:07.72. This ranked him 5th going into the final which was held later that evening.

During the final Tomas turned at the end of the first 50m in 32.09 and in second place, but strong finishes from his rivals left him in 5th.

This was still a remarkable achievement which gave him a new PB of 1:07.70.

Tomas also swam in the 200m backstroke where again he set a personal best time of 2:23.52 and finished 23rd.

His achievements at the National Championships were noticed by the British Talent Development Team who have since offered Tomas a place on the Talent Development Programme for the East Region.

Tomas will be attending two camps to be held at the University of East Anglia complex in Norwich in September and January.

The Norfolk centre is home to one of the few Olympic-sized 50m pools in the Eastern region.

Tomas, who swims for Hoddesdon Swimming Club, had stepped up his training leading up to the Championships and rejoined Harlow Penguins Swimming Club as his second club when the state-of-the-art Harlow Leisurezone complex opened.

Second whitewash for Harlow SC

A SECOND successive whitewash was suffered by Harlow's first team as they went down to division two high-flyers Broxbourne in the Herts Squash League.

Harlow were missing first string Ian Gould which meant everyone else had to play up and this did not help their cause.

First string Dave Gear lost his first set 10-15 but then improved his game and was unlucky to lose the second set by the narrowest of margins (13-15).

The third set was a marathon affair but again Gear just missed out, losing it 16-18 for a straight sets defeat.

Second string Dan Collison, still not match fit after coming back from holiday, was completely overwhelmed by his opponent 4-15, 6-15, 7-15 in straight sets.

Third string Andy Davis fared marginally better and managed to push his opponent hard but still lost in straight sets 9-15, 10-15, 10-15.

The second team, missing regular players due to holidays, were also on the end of a 3-0 mauling at Berkhamsted in division four.

First string John Tennant, playing his first match of the summer, got off to a good start, winning a close first set 15-13. His opponent recovered well to win a comfortable second set 15-8 and then a tougher fourth and fifth sets both 15-12 for a 3-1 win.

Second string Richard Lewis could not quite match his opponent and lost 9-15, 8-15, 8-15 in straight sets.

Third string Rob Coghlan, also playing his first match of the summer, suffered from a lack of match fitness and lost all three sets (7-15, 5-15, 11-15).

Duo shine in Stevenage 5K

EXCELLENT results were achieved by Harlow Running Club members Jamie Jephcott and John Tennant in the first race of the Stevenage 5K series.

Jephcott completed the course in 32nd place out of 160 runners in 18 mins 31 secs to record a personal best time for the distance. Tennant finished in 40th place and was first veteran 60 in 19:15 - a new Vet 60 club record for the distance.

Meanwhile, at the Forest 5 Mile race held on a hilly course in Epping Forest, Sean Flynn finished in 38:12 and Martin McColgan clocked 39:46.

At Basildon on Sunday in the Little Havens 5K event held over the undulating Gloucester Park circuit, young Harlow-based runner Sky Mulvey (12) had a magnificent run placing 3rd junior in 22 mins 20 secs from a field of 400 starters.

Pain for gain

FOR sunshine and gain you need Joy and Pain in the 9.04pm race at Harlow Greyhound Stadium this Friday (August 13).

McGarry on song in comfortable win

Then Martin Leslie and Duncan Page effected a partial recovery, adding 57 before Harlow skipper Jason McNally took centre stage with three telling blows.

McNally had Leslie caught by Ryan Jessey for 29 before he had Ross Poulton caught by James Butler for 0 and then caught and bowled Page for 17.

Rehman Ahmed made 33 before he was run out.

McNally guided Harlow home with a 22-ball 40 not out.

Nilesh Modhwadia was dismissed for a duck and Monger was on 0 not out at the end.

McNally said: "The pitch was awful. We would have struggled to get more than 160 on that [pitch]. A lot of the dismissals came from the ball jumping off a length and coming off the batsman's gloves.

"Andrew McGarry bowled well as he does every week and I chipped in with the ball. It was a case of just pitching it up and letting the wicket do the rest."

Eastern promise for talented young golfer

John's coach Mark Smith was not present at the tournament but said the youngster has been making a steady improvement.

Smith said: "His handicap is three and this has come down two in the last year. His long game is a lot more consistent.

"We have also been working on his approach game which has improved. It's very common to over hit approach shots and it's important the grip is not too tight."

On Tuesday, John competed in the Essex U-14 Championship, a one-day 18-hole tournament.

He scored an eight over par 79 in difficult, wet and windy conditions at Maylands Golf Club, near Brentwood.

The winner scored 75 on the par 71 course.

Leaders await side

JASON McNally admits the stakes are high when his second-placed Harlow host Shepherd Neame Essex Cricket League division two leaders Harold Wood this Saturday.

He said: "Harold Wood will probably go on to win it [the title] but this game is do or die [for us]. It's not just about beating Harold Wood but also about keeping above Buckhurst Hill [in third].

"It's going to be a good game and it will be interesting not going in as one of the favourites. It's going to be a tough one."

He added: "They will have two or three very strong players and a lot of good club cricketers. If we lose we will probably be dependent on Harold Wood beating Buckhurst Hill."

New-look Town hold premier hopefuls

Harlow Tn 1,
Tooting & Mitcham Utd 1
Friendly

SAM Taylor made his Hawks debut as Harlow Town held Ryman premier division side Tooting & Mitcham United on Saturday.

Harlow went ahead on 11 minutes when a trademark Mark Taylor free-kick went over the wall and underneath the diving frame of visitors' keeper Luke Gerrard and into the net.

Tooting equalised seven minutes later when Phil Williams curled a ball into the top corner after beating two Harlow defenders.

Just before the break a slick Harlow move resulted in a Sosthene Yao shot being well held by Gerrard.

In the latter half of the second half, Tooting should have scored when striker Junior Gynsiah scuffed an effort wide from inside the six-yard box with an open goal in front of him.

On 87 minutes, new signing Louis Riddle – making his home debut – went off with a sore groin and was replaced by substitute keeper James May, coming on as an outfield player, as Warren had used his other two substitutes.

Warren said: "I was pleased with the commitment shown and we matched them for the first 75 or 80 minutes.

"They finished up stronger. They brought a few players on with fresh legs. Louis was taken off as a precaution."

HARLOW TN: Hasell, Harvey, S. Taylor, Stewart, Roget, Wheeler, M. Taylor, Akers, Yao, Hammond, Riddle. Subs used: Verlanda, Stadhart, May.

● A HARLOW Town XI defeated hosts Hertford Town 2-0 on Saturday.

Both goals came in the first half with James Peagram lobbing the home keeper to put Harlow ahead before Reece Dobson fired in the second from close range.

Clinical Concord shatter Hawks

THE superior quality of Concord Rangers eventually told as the Hawks slipped to a heavy home defeat in Tuesday's friendly.

Harlow held the lead before the Ryman League premier division side equalised and then went on to dominate the second half at a wet Barrows Farm.

The opening period on Tuesday saw a James Elmes shot hit a Harlow post and the deadlock was not broken until the 39th minute.

A great through ball by Leo Roget released Che Stadhart and he put the ball underneath Concord keeper Dale Brightly and into the net.

However, the visitors equalised just before the break through a Tony Stokes header.

Concord went 2-1 up on 50 minutes when Harry Elmes beat Hawks keeper Rhys Madden from close range.

Elmes netted his second and the visitors' third following some strong pressure.

Hawks boss Kevin Warren had already made a host of changes which saw Mark Taylor, Ben Bradbury, Jeff Hammond and Steve Verlanda all coming on. Roget went off with a hamstring strain.

Taylor went close with a free-kick before Concord increased their lead on 80 minutes when Russell Malton hit a powerful shot into the top right-hand corner.

Concord's fifth, and arguably best goal, came on 86 minutes as Mark Sontag lobbed Madden off his line from 30 yards.

Warren said: "I was fairly happy with how we did for the first 55 or 60 minutes but when I made the changes after their second goal some of the players came on and struggled to keep up with the pace of the game.

"Concord are a good side and took their goals well."

HARLOW TN: Madden, Harvey, S. Taylor, Roget, Stevenson, Stewart, Akers, Wheeler, Yao, Stadhart, Barnes. Subs used: Bradbury, Dobson, Hammond, M. Taylor, Thomas, Verlanda.

Leo Roget, who can play central defence or in midfield, has also signed after a lengthy trial period in which he finally proved his fitness and commitment to Warren.

The Harlow boss may bring in another defender and a midfielder from Blue Square Bet South clubs but has not yet finalised his squad prior to the opening league game on August 21 against Grays Athletic, which will be played at East Thurrock United FC, where Grays are playing their home games this season.

"We have had two players from Conference South clubs approach us and I will finalise my squad with the management team and decide who we do not think are good enough," said Warren.

Harlow round off their pre-season programme with a clash against Ryman League premier division side Aveley at home this Saturday.

Captain urges young to pull their weight as golden oldies shine again

MEN'S team captain Dave Bauer has demanded that Harlow Athletic Club's younger members step up to the plate next season after virtually a veteran side secured the team's future in division three north of the Southern League.

Aside from the Paxman twins, Harlow have had to compete with a slim squad of mainly veterans this season.

DAVE BAUER (s)

Six of the seven-strong team competing at Peterborough were veterans, so Harlow's third place finish was a fantastic result.

Bauer said: "Special thanks must go to Steve Down and Glen Paxman for doing [up to 15 events] each and this included the steeplechase at the last minute which gave us a victory over Braintree.

"Our team spirit is unequalled – that's for sure!

"Due to this we have stayed in 7th place in the league which is a stunning result bearing in mind it has been so hard to get a 'proper' team out all this year!

"Next year we need some of the younger athletes back who, for one reason or another we didn't have in 2010, also, some Harlow Running Club members are definitely needed to help us in 2011."

Glen Paxman covered a record 15 events at Peterborough, securing two first places and setting three personal bests (PB).

Glen's final shot put throw of 9.85m was a PB, an improvement of 21cm.

"I have been practising shot a lot more this year and 10 metres looks possible," said Glen.

The two other PBs were an A-string javelin throw of 40.33m for third place and a 110m hurdles time of 22.0s for second.

Glen's wins were in the A 400m (55.4s) and in the triple jump (12.03m).

Veteran hurdler Steve Down also turned his hand at multi-eventing and covered 10 events in total.

His best performances came in the A 110m hurdles, where he set a masters (over 40) PB of 20.9s to come second, and in the triple jump, where he set a masters PB of 10.49m and came third.

Down came 2nd in the A 400m hurdles (66.6s) and 2nd in the B pole vault (1.10m).

He is now ranked 6th in the over 40 age group in the UK for 110m hurdles, 10th for the 400m hurdles and 14th for triple jump.

Against a strong field, veteran Ian Smith ran 12.4s in the B 100m to come 3rd and 25.6s in the B 200m for 4th.

Glen Paxman and Steve Down entered the 3,000m steeplechase to try and get enough points to overtake Braintree in third overall. "We knew that Braintree would beat us in the relays, so the steeplechase needed to be done," said Down.

The gamble paid off, as Down came first in the B race (13:35.0) and Glen was second in the A event (12:55.3).

Dave Bauer won the A discus with a throw of 37.6m and came second in the A hammer (33.40m).

Chris Clarke was 3rd in the B discus (23.36m) and 4th in the B hammer (19.98m).

Paul Avontuur won the B shot put with a throw of 9.20m.

The meeting was won by Peterborough. Other results: Glen Paxman - A 100m 2nd 11.6s; A high jump 2nd 1.55m; A long jump 3rd 5.68m; A pole vault 3rd 2.10m; B 1,500m 3rd 4:41.4; A 200m 4th 23.9s; A 800m 4th 2:42.2. Steve Down - B high jump 3rd 1.40m; B javelin 3rd 30.86m; B long jump 3rd 4.66m. Steve Lott - A 1,500m 3rd 5:11.7; B 400m 4th 68.9s; B 800m 4th 2:42.5. 4x100m - 4th 55.9s. 4x400m - 4th 4:27.2.

Age no barrier for Cyril (83)

Golf

EIGHTY-three-year-old golfer and founder member of Canons Brook GC Cyril Beaton refused to let age be any barrier to success as he led his team to victory in the competition named after him.

The Beaton Bowl (a Texas fourball competition) was contested at the Elizabeth Way club in Harlow on Saturday. Beaton helped found the club back in the 1950s and is also a past president and captain. He donated the trophy to the club in 1987 and it has been contested every year.

There was certainly a mixture of ages in Cyril's team as he was accompanied by 22-year-old Aaron Read, 61 years his junior! Also in Cyril's side were Brian Vinton and James Bevan.

Meanwhile, Canons

Brook suffered defeat in their Thornton Cup quarter-final.

It means the club has gone out in the last eight of both premier Essex county competitions, following Canons Brook's exit in the Leslie Wood Trophy at the same stage earlier this summer.

Playing away at Warley Park in the Thornton Cup, they were 4½ points to ½ point down at lunch.

Like the Leslie Wood team, they fought back to win the afternoon singles but could not do enough to edge through, eventually losing 8½ to 6½.

Club pro Alan McGinn said: "It was looking very close after we won the first four singles games of the afternoon but we could not continue and were pegged back and eventually passed.

"Both the Leslie Wood and Thornton Cup teams made it to the quarter-finals which is no mean feat and with a bit more luck could have made it further as both were very good teams and were not outclassed at any stage."

Boys double up in Essex Open

Tennis

TWO titles were won by young Harlow Tennis Club members in the Essex Junior Open.

Ben Miller and Ben Stevenson from the Latton Bush Centre club respectively won the U-14 and U-16 age group categories.

The county tournament was held at Billericay Tennis Club and also saw Stevenson and Ben Ruffles combine to finish as runner-up in the U-16 doubles, while there were plenty of other excellent displays from Harlow players.

Miller progressed to the final without dropping a set in four matches.

Here he faced Joel Cannell and this proved a match of great shot making.

Miller withstood Cannell's initial onslaught to win the first set 7-5.

A see-saw second set saw Cannell level the match by the same score and then open up a 4-1 final set lead, but he turned his ankle in attempting to return a wide serve from Ben and had to retire.

Harlow LTC Director of Tennis, Will Calvert, said: "Although Ben did not want to win this way it does not detract from a fine performance, particularly in the final where he showed his full range of shots."

In the U-16s, Stevenson won difficult quarter- and semi-final matches against county players

Lloyd Watts (Redbridge) and Sam Roy-Choudhry (Chigwell).

In the final he faced a tough opponent in Joe Rees (Woodford Wells), whose solid, error-free game enabled him to win the first set 6-2.

Stevenson fought back hard, showing the mix of power and touch that is becoming his trademark and overwhelmed Rees in winning the second set 6-1.

Buoyed, Stevenson went on to win the third game 6-1 and capture the trophy.

In the U-16 doubles,

Stevenson and Ruffles won three matches before losing to Lewis Thompson and Rees in three close sets in the final.

Harlow's Alex Dodd showed his rapid improvement by qualifying for the U-12 singles quarter-finals where he lost to the eventual winner, James Davis, in three close sets. Alex did well as he was the only player to win a set against Davis in the whole tournament.

The U-18 event saw the hugely improved Ben Ruffles secure a notable victory over Roy-Choudhry in the third round before narrowly losing to eventual winner Frankie Langan 6-7, 7-6, 1-6 in the last eight.

Stevenson came very close to achieving a memorable double but lost a tough semi-final to Langan 3-6, 6-3, 3-6. Back-to-back semi-finals on the same day proved too much.

"Congratulations to all the players. Their success is the reward for the huge amount of hard work they have put in over the last 12 months. Many thanks go to the parents and coaches for all the support they have provided," Calvert added.

Sprinter clocks PB double

SPRINTER Mathew Morgan set two personal best (PB) times when he competed for Harlow Athletic Club at Woodford.

In an open meeting the 12-year-old, a student at Mark Hall School, won the U-13 boys races, posting times of 13.3 seconds for the 100m and 27.74s for the 200m.

This placed him 12th in the East Region in his age group.

Charlotte Taylor (12) posted a PB of 14.56s in placing 2nd in the U-13 girls 100m.

Tyler Bown (15), a Mark Hall student, won both his U-17 races in PBs of 11.68s (100m) and 23.41s (200m).

Perry Rowan (13), a Burnt Mill student, won the U-15 boys 3km in a PB of 10 mins 07.8s which places him 20th in the UK for U-14s over that distance.

Perry has been receiving advice from Chris Taylor, a World Record holder for running 3km in a time of 8 mins 57 secs when just 14 in 1969. Taylor, now 55, still lives in the UK.

Sam Benge (16) was 2nd in the U-17 800m in 2:05.3 (PB).

Harlow AC member Isobel Moss (14) also set a PB of 11:55 in her 3km race, which she won.

Alicia McArdell (12) won the U-13 girls 800m in 2:41.

Rosie Poole (11), from Harlow AC, was 3rd in 2:53.8.

At Barnet on Saturday, Tom Richards (17) threw a superb 52.84m for 2nd in the javelin. Tom is now 3rd in the East Region and 22nd in the UK in his age group.

At Stevenage in the South of England Inter Counties U-17 event, four athletes helped Essex to win two trophies.

Sam Benge (16) improved his 3km PB to 9:49 for 13th, while Tyler Bown was 3rd in the B 400m (54.0s).

Sophie Fuhr was 3rd in the B 300m (44.0s) and Ryan Dunne (15) was 5th in the B 1,500 steeplechase (5:36).

Hawks' happy Tayl

Boss delighted at capture of experienced ex-Blues left-back

KEVIN Warren has swooped for former Bishop's Stortford left-back Sam Taylor from Ryman premier club Concord Rangers.

The Hawks boss has been looking to bring in a left-back after Mark Duckett changed his mind about joining Harlow Town earlier this summer and instead joined Blue Square Bet North club Corby Town.

Reece Dobson, more of an attacking player, had been tried in this position during pre-season, but Taylor is now set to get the berth.

Taylor, pictured left, who last played for Stortford in the 2008-09 campaign, has suffered from injuries, but Warren is not worried about this.

The full-back made his debut in the 1-1 draw with Tooting & Mitcham on Saturday and then played in the 5-1 reverse against Concord on Tuesday at Barrows Farm (see reports on page 78). His skill and experience will be crucial next term.

The Hawks boss said: "He has had a few injuries but has had a good pre-season. It was too early to throw Reece in there.

"When Sam came up, I was pleased to get him in. He defends well, has good positional sense and a good attitude."

Warren confirmed that left winger Louis Riddle (ex-Braintree Town and Bishop's Stortford) and midfielder Andy Porter, who had trained at Braintree Town during pre-season, have both accepted Ryman division one north terms.

Eastern promise for talented young golfer

Golf

IT has been a busy fortnight for golfer John Withington who won the U-14 Eastern Region competition just a week before competing against top young golfers from across Europe in the prestigious Reid Trophy.

The 13-year-old Canons Brook Golf Club member had staged a remarkable fightback to win the Eastern Region tournament on countback after firing rounds of 41 (over nine holes) and 71 (over 18 holes) in the event, held at Dunstable Downs Golf Club in Bedfordshire.

From Tuesday to Thursday last week, John of Linford End, Harlow, competed in the Reid Trophy (England U-14 Championship) at Hesketh, Lancashire.

He fired rounds of 79, 80 and 74 for a 17 over par total of 233 for 25th place.

Bradley Neil (Blairgowrie Golf Club, Scotland) won the tournament with rounds of 70, 73 and 75 for a two over par total of 218 +2.

A total of 110 golfers from across Europe including Spain, The Netherlands, Norway and France took part. Golfers of 7 handicap or below competed.

Stewards School student John shone in the East Region Championship, known as the Keith Bass Trophy.

However, he started off badly and was in 13th spot and five points behind the leader after nine holes.

This was after he had hit four bogeys (one over par) and a triple bogey (three over par) before getting a birdie (one under par) on the par three 123-yard ninth.

In the afternoon round over 18 holes, he fired four bogeys but bounced back with three birdies.

He also competed in a team event and won this for Essex with an overall score of 431.

All eight Essex golfers finished in the top 11 to dominate this event.

third-placed Buckhurst Hill.

A win is essential to keep Buckhurst's challenge at bay.

Wood notched up a resounding eight-wicket win over Wickford last Saturday, while Harlow cantered to a seven-wicket success.

Stanford-le-Hope batted first and started shakily.

Alex Ellis was trapped lbw by Andrew McGarry for 0 before Robert Page was bowled by Luke Monger for 6 to leave the hosts on 7-2.
